

ICL-QUESTIONNAIRE

NAME: Paul S. Rundquist

GRANT PERIOD: 9/2006-2/2007

PRESENT POSITION US: Graduate School of Political Management, George Washington Univ.

BORN: Chicago. 6/20/1948

LANGUAGES: English

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

Institut für Politikwissenschaft, Martin-Luther-Universität, Halle-Wittenberg

Office: +49 0345-55-24262

Residence: +49 0345-279-90706

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

American History and Politics

AREAS OF RESEARCH

American politics and government, especially legislatures

Presidential-Congressional relations

US governmental processes post 9/11

Comparative government and democratization

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

2006 American elections and outlook for 2008 presidential elections

State of legislative-executive relations in wake of Iraq war

American politics and culture after the 9/11 attacks

State of democratic stability in newly democratized states

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

Ph.D. History, University of Chicago, 1975

M.A. History, University of Chicago, 1972

B.A. Political Science, Loyola University, 1969

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

1974-2005: Specialist in Government, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress.

1979-80: Research Director, US House Select Committee on Committees.

1992-93: Senior Policy Analyst, US Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress.

1990-1995: Senior parliamentary consultant, US House Task Force on Parliamentary Development in Eastern Europe.

1996-1998: Fulbright Professor of Politics, Warsaw University and Jagiellonian University (Krakow)

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

Numerous publications for American Congress and its committees available through www.opencrs.com plus conference papers and book chapters on legislative procedures, comparative government, and democratization processes. Full itemization available in CV upon request.

*****