

ICL-QUESTIONNAIRE

NAME: Nigel Boyle

GRANT PERIOD: Sept 2008 to July 2009

PRESENT POSITION US: Peter and Gloria Gold Chair in Political Studies, Pitzer College, Claremont

BORN: Birmingham, England, 9-8-60

LANGUAGES: English

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

Institut für Politikwissenschaft,
Universität Koblenz-Landau,
Kaufhausgasse 9,
D-76829 Landau, Germany

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

Political Science

AREAS OF RESEARCH

Labor Market Policy

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

The Celtic Tiger
Labor Market Policy
Football (soccer) and Politics

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

1993 Ph.D. (Political Science) Duke University.

1981 B.A. (Politics) Liverpool University

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

2007-Peter and Gloria Gold Chair in Political Studies

2000-7 Founder/Academic Director of CISEP (Claremont International Studies Education Project, a professional development program for social studies teachers funded by the State of California and other outside grants).

1998-2003 Associate/Acting Director of the EU Center of California

1992-present Assistant, Associate and Professor, Political Studies, Pitzer College

1990-1992 Teaching Fellow and Junior Dean, University College, Oxford

1989-1990 R. Taylor Cole Instructor, Duke University

1988-1989 College Lecturer, University College, Oxford

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

Monographs

In progress: "State Capacity and the Irish Labor Market Model 1985-2008" (publishing agreement with Institute of Public Administration Publications, Dublin).

Crafting Change: Labor Market Policy under Mrs Thatcher (University Press of the South, New Orleans, 2006).

FÁS and Active Labour Market Policy 1985-2004 (The Policy Institute, Dublin, 2005).
