

ICL-QUESTIONNAIRE

NAME: Kathleen G. Donohue
PRESENT POSITION US: Professor of History
Central Michigan University

GRANT PERIOD: 16.9.09 – 16.2.10
BORN: 12.8.58
LANGUAGES: English and German

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

Ruhr-Universitaet Bochum

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

American History, (19th and 20th Centuries)

AREAS OF RESEARCH

American Political History
American Gender History
Film and History

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

Topics in American Politics and Political History
Topics in American Women's History and Gender History
Film and Gender
Film and Politics
Public's Right to Know
American Liberalism, Conservatism, or Radicalism
Politics of Consumption

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

Ph.D. in American History, University of Virginia
M.A. in American History, University of Virginia
M.A. in German, Florida State University
BA Florida State University (major: history, minor: German)

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

University of North Carolina-Charlotte
University of Georgia
Barnard College and Columbia College, Columbia University

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

Monographs:

Information Wars: The Public's Right to Know and the Making of Modern America (in progress)
Freedom from Want: Modern American Liberalism and the Idea of the Consumer. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 2003.

Edited Collections:

With Freedom and Justice for All: Rethinking Politics in Cold War America. Amherst: UMass Press, 2010.

Selected Articles:

"Access Denied: Rethinking Conservatism in the McCarthy Era." In With Liberty and Justice for All
"What Gender is the Consumer? The Role of Gender Connotations in Defining the Political." Journal of American Studies, 33 (1999): 19-44

*****