

INTERCOUNTRY LECTURESHIP QUESTIONNAIRE 2010

For Professors and Journalists

NAME: Joshua C. Davis
GRANT PERIOD: 15. September 2010-15. July 2011
EMAIL ADDRESS: jcdavis@email.unc.edu
BORN: 2. June 1979
PRESENT POSITION US:
LANGUAGES: English, German

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

(please provide links to homepages, if available)

University of Hamburg: http://www.slm.uni-hamburg.de/IAA/H_welcom.htm

Humboldt University: <http://www.anl.hu-berlin.de/>

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

History

American Studies

AREAS OF RESEARCH

U.S. Consumer culture and its globalization

African-American popular culture and civil rights

Youth cultures

History of business and capitalism

History of gender and sexuality

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

African-American consumer culture in post-1945 United States

The civil rights movement and consumer culture

Youth consumer culture in post-1945 United States

Hip/countercultural businesses and consumption

Music and consumer culture

Feminism and consumer culture

The popularization of African-American popular culture in post-1945 Europe

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

Ph. D., (history)--University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

M.A.(history)-University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

Lecturer, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

"The Selling of Soul: African American Consumers, Record Stores, and Commercial Public Life in the 1960s and 1970s South," Southern Cultures, Summer 2011