

INTERCOUNTRY LECTURESHIP QUESTIONNAIRE 2010

For Professors and Journalists

NAME: Joseph A. Kunkel III
GRANT PERIOD: March 16, 2011-June 15, 2011 (Actual May 2, 2011-July 31, 2011)
EMAIL ADDRESS: joseph.kunkel@mnsu.3du
BORN: December 5, 1949 St. Louis, Missouri USA
PRESENT POSITION US: Political Science Professor Minnesota State University
LANGUAGES: English Elementary German

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

(please provide links to homepages, if available)

Friedrich-Alexander-Universitat Erlangen-Nürnberg <http://www.uni-erlangen.org/>

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

Political Science

AREAS OF RESEARCH

U.S. Government and Politics

U.S. Elections

American Political Thought

Civic Engagement

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

U.S. Elections

Obama Presidency

U.S. Government

American Political Thought

Models for teaching youth active democratic citizenship

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

Ph. D. 1980. University of Minnesota, Department of Political Science

M.A. 1975. University of Minnesota, Department of Political Science

B.A. 1972. University of Missouri-St. Louis. Major: Political Science.

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

none

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

"Public Achievement: Collaboration, Action and Civic Education. 2001. in Teaching Together: School/University Collaboration to Improve Social Studies Education. Christenson, Johnston, Norris editors. Silver Spring, Maryland. National Council for the Social Studies.

"Political Parties in Minnesota." in Hoffman, Ostrom, Williamson and Wolsborn. Perspectives on MN Government and Politics, 4th ed. 1998. Edina, MN. Burgess Publishing

Minnesota: The State and Its Government. 2006, 2001, 1995. St. Paul, MN. The Minnesota American Legion.

"Party Endorsement and Incumbency in Minnesota Legislative Nominations," Legislative Studies Quarterly, XIII, 2, May 1988.