

INTERCOUNTRY LECTURESHIP QUESTIONNAIRE 2010

For Professors and Journalists

NAME: M. Lynn Rose
GRANT PERIOD: September 2010 - July 2011
EMAIL ADDRESS: lynnrose@truman.edu
BORN: US
PRESENT POSITION US: Professor of History
LANGUAGES: English

GERMAN HOST INSTITUTION

(please provide links to homepages, if available)

Universitaet Rostock

<https://www.uni-rostock.de/>

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE

British & American Studies; History

AREAS OF RESEARCH

Disability Studies

POSSIBLE LECTURE TOPICS

Disability History; Disability Culture; Religion and Disability; the Freak Show.

ACADEMIC TRAINING AND DEGREES

PhD History 1995 University of Minnesota (Mpls.)

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

I have been at Truman State University as a permanent, tenure-track (now tenured) professor of history since 1995.

PUBLICATIONS (selected)

--With Steven Reschly, "Amish Tourism in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania: Open-Air Freak Show," essay submitted for publication to Disability Studies Quarterly, June, 2010.

--"Three Models of Disability": invited lecture presented for International Women's Day, United Arab Emirates University-Al Ain, Al Ain, UAE, March 8, 2008.

--Contributing author of numerous entries in Encyclopedia of Disability, ed. Gary L. Albrecht, 5 vols. (Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Press), 2006.