

DATA PROTECTION NOTICE – YOUR APPLICATION

This information notice describes how the GERMAN-AMERICAN FULBRIGHT-COMMISSION (Fulbright Germany) ("Controller") will process your personal data in the context of your current application for scholarship with the Controller.

1. Purposes of processing

The Controller will process your personal data to consider, review and possibly award you a scholarship.

2. Personal data processed

We collect and process personal data ("Personal Data") about you when you apply scholarship from the Controller.

This includes all the information you voluntarily provide throughout the application process, which may include

Historical information

- Information about your personal history (events, travel history, etc.)

Internal Information

- Knowledge and belief (religious belief, philosophical beliefs, etc.)
- Preferences (opinions, intentions, interests, likes, dislikes, etc.)

External and sensitive information

- Identifying information (name, age, date of birth, user-name, government issued identification (passport/ID), picture, address, email address, phone number, etc.)
- Immigration status (work permit, resident permit, etc.)
- Ethnicity (race, national or ethnic origin, languages spoken, dialects, etc.)
- Sexual (gender, etc.)
- Demographic (age, etc.)
- Medical and health (disabilities, health history, allergies, etc.)

Financial information

- Account (bank account number, etc.)
- Ownership (income, loan records, etc.)

- Criminal information (convictions, charges, etc.)
- Public life (social status, marital status, religion, political affiliations, etc.)
- Family (family structure, siblings, details of dependents, marriages, divorces, relationships, etc.)
- Photos and Videos

3. Legal basis for processing

We process this personal data for the following purposes

For purposes which are required by law:

- To fulfill immigration obligations (e.g., visa application, health insurance coverage through 7 Corners, etc.)

- In response to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation (e.g., to apply for visa)

Where you give us consent.

To fulfill a contract, or take steps linked to a contract. This includes services rendered/offered by

- The German-American Fulbright-Commission, when awarding a scholarship
- Insurances

As required by Controller to conduct our business and pursue our legitimate interests, in particular

- Networking activities
- Exchanging contact details with donors
- Investigating any complaints received from you or from others about our services
- We will use data in connection with legal claims, compliance, regulatory and investigative purposes as necessary (including disclosure of such information in connection with legal process or litigation)

4. Withdrawing consent or otherwise objecting to direct marketing

Wherever we rely on your consent, you will always be able to withdraw that consent, although we may have other legal grounds for processing your data for other purposes, such as those set out above.

5. Consequences of not providing the above sensitive personal data or withdrawing consent

You do not have to provide your consent. However, not giving or withdrawal of your consent may compromise the completeness of data needed to grant a scholarship.

6. Recipients or categories of recipients

Your Personal Data may be shared with

- third party service providers, who will process personal data on behalf of Controller for the purposes identified above. Such third parties include IIE (Institute of International Education), ECA (Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs), university partnerships as listed in the data register (updated annually by December), review panel as listed in the data register (updated annually by December) and selection committees (updated annually by December)
- attorneys or legal counsel representing the Controller
- courts, tribunals, (arbitration) commissions, government authorities and/or law enforcement officials if required for the purposes above, if mandated by law or if required for the legal protection of our legitimate interests in compliance with applicable laws

7. Details of data transfers outside the EU

Your Personal Data may be transferred outside the EU to the United States of America.

Where information is transferred outside the EU, and where this is to a third party, stakeholder or vendor in a country that is not subject to an adequacy decision by the EU Commission, data is adequately protected by EU Commission approved standard contractual clauses, an appropriate Privacy Shield certification or Binding Corporate Rules. A copy of the relevant mechanism can be provided for your review on request to the Controller.

8. Security

The Controller will implement, and undertakes that its data processors implement, appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure an appropriate level of security of your Personal Data.

9. What rights do you have?

Pursuant to the data protection legislation, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR"), as well as any legislation and/or regulation implementing or created pursuant to the GDPR, or which amends, replaces, re-enacts or consolidates any of them, and all other national applicable laws relating to processing of personal data and privacy that may exist under applicable law, several rights are recognized, which you can in principle exercise free of charge, subject to statutory exceptions. In particular, you have the following rights

- right to access, review, and rectify your Personal Data. You may be entitled to ask us for a copy of your information, to review or correct it
- right to erasure: you have the right to erasure of all the Personal Data processed by us in case we no longer need it for the purposes for which the Personal Data were initially collected or processed
- right to object or restriction of processing: under certain circumstances described in the data protection legislation, you may ask for a restriction of processing or object to the processing of your Personal Data
- right to data portability: you have the right to receive the Personal Data processed in a format which is structured, commonly used and machine-readable and to transmit this data to another service provider

These rights may be limited, for example if fulfilling your request would reveal personal data about another person, or if you ask us to delete information which we are required by law to keep or have compelling legitimate interests in keeping.

To exercise any of these rights, you can get in touch with us, using the contact details set out below.

If you have unresolved concerns, you have the right to lodge a complaint with an EU data protection authority where you live, work or where you believe a breach may have occurred. This is likely to be the Berliner Beauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit:
